KEVIN MARCY (LEAD ARTIST/BAND LEADER)

Born into a musical family, Mr. Marcy attended PCPA in Southern California before he started playing music with his brothers. After forming the Marcy Brothers band, Kevin and his brothers secured two major label record deals, yielding a top 40 song and three #1 videos, among other honors. Touring with the Marcy Brothers, he opened for Johnny and June Carter Cash, Waylon Jennings, George Strait, Merle Haggard, Charlie Rich, Alabama, and Alan Jackson, to name a few! Kevin is also a songwriter, writing for three major publishing companies in Nashville. Recently, "364 Days to Go" was cut by Brad Paisley for Paisley's Christmas album. After touring as Brad Paisley's sound technician, Kevin took a short break from performing and songwriting to spend time with family. SMTP's American Legend marked his return to the stage. He is also returning to the recording studio with a soon-to-be-released acoustic album of original songs.

BACKING BAND: THE CRETIN'S CATTLE

"Psychobilly Rockabilly Country Jazz Swing Punk Western Americana,"

"The Cretin's Cattle is a psychobilly group from Chico, CA. Unlike many of their contemporaries, TCC tends to drift from revved-up psychobilly to low-key jazz. Not afraid to show their roots through other styles including country, blues, rockabilly and punk, they have something to deliver to a very diverse crowd of punkabilly beatniks. They do everything their own way and w/ a natural DIY ethic. It is utterly impossible to get a grasp of or compare what these age divergent musicians do on the stage and in their recordings. The juju is there."

August 18 and 19, 2017 at Folsom Amphitheater – behind 200 Wool Street. Tickets are available through Eventbrite at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/american-legend-tickets-35157776857>
